South & North Korea Travel Guide

Synopsis

South Korea is a democratic, modern, industrialized country with a population of 50 million. Korea has seven UNESCO World Heritage Sites. The Korean peninsula has a land area of approximately 220,000 sq. km. It is divided at the 38th parallel by a demilitarized zone (DMZ) separating South and North Korea. Outlets for 220 volts 60 cycles are dominant. Dial 119 for the fire department and medical assistance and 112 for the police. Spring runs from March through May with flowers such as azalea, forsythia, cherry blossoms, rapeseed and magnolia. From July to August, it is hot and sometimes rainy. Autumnal tints arrive nationwide by October. Skiing season starts from late November and lasts to early March. A local call costs W70 for three minutes and to make an international call, first dial the international dialing code (001, 002 or 008), then the country code, area code, and then finally the individual number. You can rent a cell phone at the airport. Value-added tax is levied on most goods and services at a standard rate of 10% and is included in the retail price. Tipping is not customary in Korea. In tourist hotels, a 10% service charge is added to the bill, and 3-10% at some large restaurants. The unit of Korean currency is the won (w). One US dollar is equivalent to about w1000.
