My toddler and I read this every night before bed. It's non-denominational and teaches my son to be thankful to God for everything we have. It's easy to read and the rhymes are melodious. He's starting to memorize some of the sentences and saying them with me. The pictures are colorful and interesting. I also bought this book as a Baptism gift for my cousin's son and my nephew. It's my new go-to present for babies.

We love this book. My 16 month old son first fell in love with A Christmas Prayer, and asked for it months past Christmas. I finally broke down and decided to see if there was another in the series, and found this little gem. This book is a great reminder to give thanks to God for all of the little things (and big things) in life. The illustrations are cute and soft for bedtime. My son always finds something new to point out on each page. I'm sure we'll be reading this book for a long time.

I had received one of these books for a gift for my child and have purchased this one for my 1 year old niece. A sweet little story for the little ones. It will go great with her blanket that I am making her.

My son loves it when i read this to him, i even changed my voice for different animals and he laughs :)

My family adores this book. We were given it as a gift and now we give it to everyone. It is a wonderful book to read at bedtime to your kids. It has a gentle rhythm that calms them down. It has age appropriate (simple, loving) messages about God and heaven. It is a part of our nightly routine and we love it.

This book is precious. It's become a frequently rotated book in our household and I give it for Christening gifts.

Great book!

I love this book! I read it to my daughter every night and just bought it for my nephew. It's a must for every child's book collection.
