Customer Reviews

This travel guide in Toronto is an excellent book, it gives you a lot of information. I really enjoyed reading this book, it's a pretty good travel guide for those who wants to travel in Toronto. This detailed travel guide book leads travelers far from the beaten path to uncover Toronto's best kept secrets. Listed in this travel guide book in Toronto are restaurants, shops, nightlife, and more. It also includes some nice parks to wander in, and insights into the city.

I am so excited to see Toronto in actual since I have read a lot of things about this place from this book.. As I read its content I have greatly enjoyed it since the description of the places in it were so detailed and it seems you are really in the place itself. I can imagine it myself. Soon I will plan my travel to Toronto. Toronto wait for me!

Wow! Toronto in my eyes! Have successfully gathered the sites I'd want to visit and the places I wanna shop to because of this reliable and up-to-date travel guide. The writer has done some creativity in presenting the info in a way that one could easily remember it. I'm dying to witness a real time baseball game. The only flaw is the font size of some of the info. It's kinda annoying.

This book is small and compact and give you the very brief outlines of the Top 25 things you need to know about travelling Toronto, all sorts of things - Parks, Family Activities, Shopping, Restaurants. If you are looking for a lot to read and in depth this is not it - but perfect for quick and easy!

Seriously, this is a single web page disguised as a book. A Google search would give better (and more comprehensive) advice. Don't bother downloading - it's a waste of time, if not money.

A burger joint, go bike riding and rent a canoe. Read cover to cover and finished in 7 minutes. Not a guidebook. More like a short conversation with some guy at a party who's telling you what to do in Toronto. Waste of money.

This book is very useful to tourist who want to experience local life. Will definitely explore Toronto when I visit.
