Photographer and writer Patrick Soran calls Denver and Boulder a "walker's dream". Hundreds of miles of developed trails crisscrossing Colorado's Front Range backs up his enthusiasm. Denver & Boulder Walks and Easy Hikes is the easy-to-read collection of scenic strolls and jaunts within this region. Outlining 69 short outings in all, old favorites plus new, previously unpublished hikes, this slim, easy-to-carry volume is an essential reference for day-hikers, be they avid or novice.

Raised and educated in Denver's Capitol Hill, Patrick Soran lives in the very home in which he was born. The house was purchased by his grandparents in 1936 and has served as hearth and home to three generations. Needless to say, Patrick is an enthusiastic advocate of Denver; he loves to pedal its bicycle paths, chat with friends in its urbane coffee shops, walk its tree-lined avenues and, of course, spend autumn Sundays cheering (and crying!) for the Denver Broncos. Trained as an architect, Patrick designed luxury homes and hotel interiors for 15 years before trading T-square and triangle for computer and camera in 1990. Now he explores the world writing articles about travel, design and personalities for newspapers and magazines across the country. Patrick is immensely proud to write about his home state. He believes Colorado has terrific wilderness and wildlife experiences, edge-of-the-envelope recreation and exciting cultural and lifestyle opportunities.
